About Our Institution

Ansar Arabic College Valavannur, a pioneer institution of higher education is situated in the Valavannur village of the educationally backward district of Malappuram. The college was established in the year 1964 by the reformist socio cultural and educational organization namely “Ansarullah Sangam” for the uplift of the educationally backward rural Malabar through quality higher education. The college was affiliated to the University of Calicut in the year 1970 and became a Government Aided College in the year 1979. University Grants Commission (UGC) recognized the college under section 2 (F) and 12(B) in the year 2010. Minority status was awarded to the college by the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions, New Delhi in the year 2014. The college has been recognized as a research center in Arabic Language and Literature by the University of Calicut. The college is now run by Ansar Arabic College Committee under the parent organization “Ansarullah Sangham”.

The founding father of the college, like the great visionary K P Mohammed Bin Ahammed, set up the college with the great objective of reforming the surrounding communities of the backward region through imparting quality higher education. Having succeeded in this lofty mission to a greater extent, the college is now striving to conquer new frontiers of educational progress. The management of the college is steadfast in materializing its lofty goal of founding a reformed society based on ethical core values and academic excellence with progressive national and global outlook.

The college strives to maintain an academic ambience, conducive to nurturing national and international competitiveness, professionalism, scientific temper, research aptitude, strong nationalism and higher commitment towards the society among its learners. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has been pivotal in chalking out a balanced plan of action catering to develop curricular and extra-curricular excellence and progress among students. By consulting various stakeholders, the IQAC of the college has taken initiatives in the preparations of strategic plans considering the NAAC determined criteria indicators.
